PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 UK only!

Virtually all the assignments we arrange are with clients who are exempt from the provision of section 4(2) of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions/Amendments) Order 1985. Applicants are therefore not entitled to withhold information about any convictions which for other purposes are 'spent' under the provision of the Act. Any information given will be completely confidential and will be considered in relation to an application for the positions to which the order applies. Please tick the box below if you have no such convictions to declare. If not please contact us for advice.

I have no convictions to declare

Police Checks UK & Ireland only!

In positions where you will have substantial access to children, the sick or vulnerable you will be required to have a British Police Criminal Record check, which will identify all past convictions, including those passed as "spent". Please note: any NHS employers and independent as well now require a police check (CRB) for all healthcare professionals.

Do you have such a Police check? Yes No

If you are from outside the UK, please apply for a police check in your home country before travelling to the UK. If you reside in UK please contact your nearest police station and request the following forms 'Data Protection Forms: Request for access to Information held on Police Computers'.

Professional Misconduct

Have you ever been the subject of professional misconduct proceedings or suspensions from an employer, or are such pending or threatened against you either in your home country or abroad? Yes No

If yes please give details:

48 Hour Working Week Opt-out, UK only!

The working Time Directive states that staff cannot be forced to work more than an average of 48 hours per week. You are free to accept as many or as few hours per week as you wish. However, in case you should wish to work more than 48 hours in any one week, please sign below to give your consent.

I hereby agree that the Working Week Limit shall not apply: Yes No
